CLIFTON VIEW, Frederick, MD

Welcome to Fielderia Manor, a stately 19th-century residence gracefully set on five pastoral acres along South Clifton Road in Frederick. Once part of the original Fielder Gaunt land patent of the 1770s, this remarkable home blends historic character with modern comfort. A tree-lined lane shaded by walnut trees opens to sweeping gardens filled with perennials—tulips, lilies, daffodils, hydrangeas, and more—that frame the stone-and-siding faade. Inside, over 4,500 sq. ft. of living space offers 10-foot ceilings, original wood floors, and a grand three-story staircase. Formal parlors, each with a fireplace, showcase intricate woodwork and tall windows, while the library’s built-ins and presidential wallpaper speak to the home’s storied past. The spacious dining room features floor-to-ceiling windows and a cozy gas stove, and the kitchen’s walnut cabinetry, double ovens, and large island create a welcoming gathering space. Upstairs, three distinctive bedroom suites include a primary suite with a den, renovated bath, and a private deck overlooking the gardens. Additional rooms on the third floor and a partially finished attic provide flexible living or guest spaces. Outdoor living abounds with a screened porch, stone patio, and gazebo amid blooming fields. There is even a small detached studio with heat, TV, and bunk beds. With three working fireplaces and a propane stove, updated windows, renovated baths, and thoughtful details throughout, Fielderia Manor offers timeless beauty and modern livability—an elegant Frederick County retreat rich in history, privacy, and charm.
